9 IN RE: Bard IVC Filters Products Liability
10 Litigation

No. 2:15-MD-02641-DGC

11
12 ORDER

13 Upon consideration of Defendants C. R. Bard, Inc.'s and Bard Peripheral Vascular, 14 Inc.'s (collectively, "Bard") Post-Verdict Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law and 15 Memorandum in Support, the Court hereby GRANTS the motion. The trial record contains 16 legally insufficient evidence to uphold the verdict that Bard negligently failed to warn Dr.
17 D'Ayala about the risks of the G2 Filter, and the Court enters judgement as a matter of law in 18 favor of Bard on the plaintiff's negligent failure-to-warn claim. Moreover, the evidence at 19 trial was legally insufficient to allow an award of punitive damages.
